

PINEDA PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (PCUSA)

Pineda Presbyterian Church has an exciting opportunity for an organist who is eager to collaborate with a young, professionally trained choir director and an accomplished worship band leader to strengthen and expand the music department of this vital, redeveloping congregation.

The Organist is responsible for assisting the Choir Director in the development of a strong, forward-moving church music program that deepens the worship experience for a congregation rooted in the Presbyterian tradition. The Organist shall support the Choir Director in the selection of appropriate liturgical music for all worship services and accompany the congregation on hymns. This position reports directly to the Choir Director, Pastor, and Worship Chair.

Key Areas of Responsibilities include:

- Adequately prepare musical offerings, including preludes, hymns, offertories, and postludes.
- Assist the Chancel Choir in preparation and presentation of musical offerings, including introits, anthems, and responses as selected by the Choir Director.
- Provide accompaniment for vocal and instrumental soloists and ensembles for special music, as appropriate.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in Music or related field preferred (equivalent experience will be considered).
Note: Applicants will audition before being awarded the position.
- Successful experience in a wide range of music styles, including classical, folk, and spirituals.
- Effective interpersonal communication and leadership skills.
